CIVIL ACTION NO. CV106-204

ORDER

Pursuant to the power of this Court to enter a judgment affirming, modifying or reversing the Commissioner's decision with remand in Social Security actions under sentence four of section 205(g) of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. §405(g), and in light of the government's request to remand this action for further agency action, it is ordered that this matter be remanded to the Appeals Council, so that it may issue an order remanding this case to an ALJ. The ALJ then may (1) obtain updated medical evidence as to the functional impact of plaintiff's exertional and non-exertional impairments, (2) provide a legally sufficient rationale for the weighing of all functional assessments by physicians contained in the record, (3) re-assess plaintiff's subjective complaints in accordance with SSA's regulations and policies, (4) make a new finding as to plaintiff's residual functional capacity, and (5) obtain vocational expert testimony as to plaintiff's ability to do her past work and any alternative jobs in the national economy, given all her exertional and non-exertional limitations.

Therefore, this Court hereby reverses the Commissioner's decision under sentence four of 42 U.S.C. §405(g) with a remand of the cause to the Commissioner for further proceedings, as specified above. See Shalala v. Schaefer, 509 U.S. 292 (1993); Melkonyan v. Sullivan, 501 U.S. 89 (1991). The clerk of the court will enter a separate judgment pursuant to Rule 58 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
